

Seminar on the measure of society progress, development and well-being

Cultural program
11 to 15 July 2010

Sunday 11 July 2010

07:00 – 09:00 pm Welcoming cocktail at Hotel Mélia,
Kirchberg-Luxembourg

Monday 12 July 2010

04:30 pm Departure by bus (in front of the European Court of Auditors)

04:45 – 07:00 pm Guided visit of Luxembourg City (meeting with the guide on the Place de la Constitution)

08:00 – 10:30 pm Dinner at the Brasserie Kirchberg (193, rue de Kirchberg L-1858 Luxembourg)

Tuesday 13 July 2010

04:45 pm Departure by bus (in front of the European Court of Auditors)

05:15 – 08:00 pm Guided visit of the Belval site and of Esch-sur-Alzette

The Belval site: visit of the City of Sciences, of the building project on the Blast Furnaces
Terrace and current building sites

The city of Esch-sur-Alzette, named the "Iron Metropole", is the second most important city in Luxembourg)

Reception offered by Mrs Lydia MUTSCH,
Deputy and Mayor of Esch-sur-Alzette City

08:00 – 10:00 pm Dinner at the Restaurant Le Pavillon (Am Park Gaalgebierg, L-4142 Esch-sur-Alzette)

Wednesday 14 July 2010

04:30 pm Departure by bus (in front of the Chamber of Commerce)

05:15 – 07:30 pm Visit of Schengen and the European Museum:

It was right at the heart of the
"Dräilännereck" – the Three Frontiers Country - that the Schengen Treaty was ratified on 14 June 1985, 25 years ago, on the "M.S. Princesse Marie-Astrid" ship on the Luxembourg side of the Moselle River.

07:30 – 10:00 pm Dinner at the Restaurant Château de Schengen (2, Beim Schlass, L-5444 Schengen)

Thursday 15 July 2010

02:00 pm Departure by bus (in front of the European Court of Auditors)

03:00 – 06:00 pm Visit of Vianden Castle and Victor Hugo's house:

The French writer and poet was welcomed in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg as a political exile between 1862 et 1865, and spent part of his life there in Vianden.

06:00 pm Return to Hotel Mélia